

DIRECTIONS TO MOYLES FARM: (from Exeter and the M5)

Just past Exeter take the A30 sign to Launceston.

Some 50 miles past Exeter is the sign to Launceston.

Stay on the A30 for a few miles beyond Launceston and there is a sign to the right at Kennards House which says A395 to Camelford, Wadebridge and North Cornwall (A39). Take this turn to the right and follow it until T junction with the A39 which is approximately 13 miles from the A30.

Take the left hand turn on the A39 towards Wadebridge.

Approximately 2-3 miles along the A39 take the right hand turn that is signposted to Delabole, Tintagel and Port Isaac, the B3314.

After a further 2-3 miles there is another cross roads, go straight across staying on the B3314 still signposted to Wadebridge. Continue on this road through Delabole for approximately 7 miles.

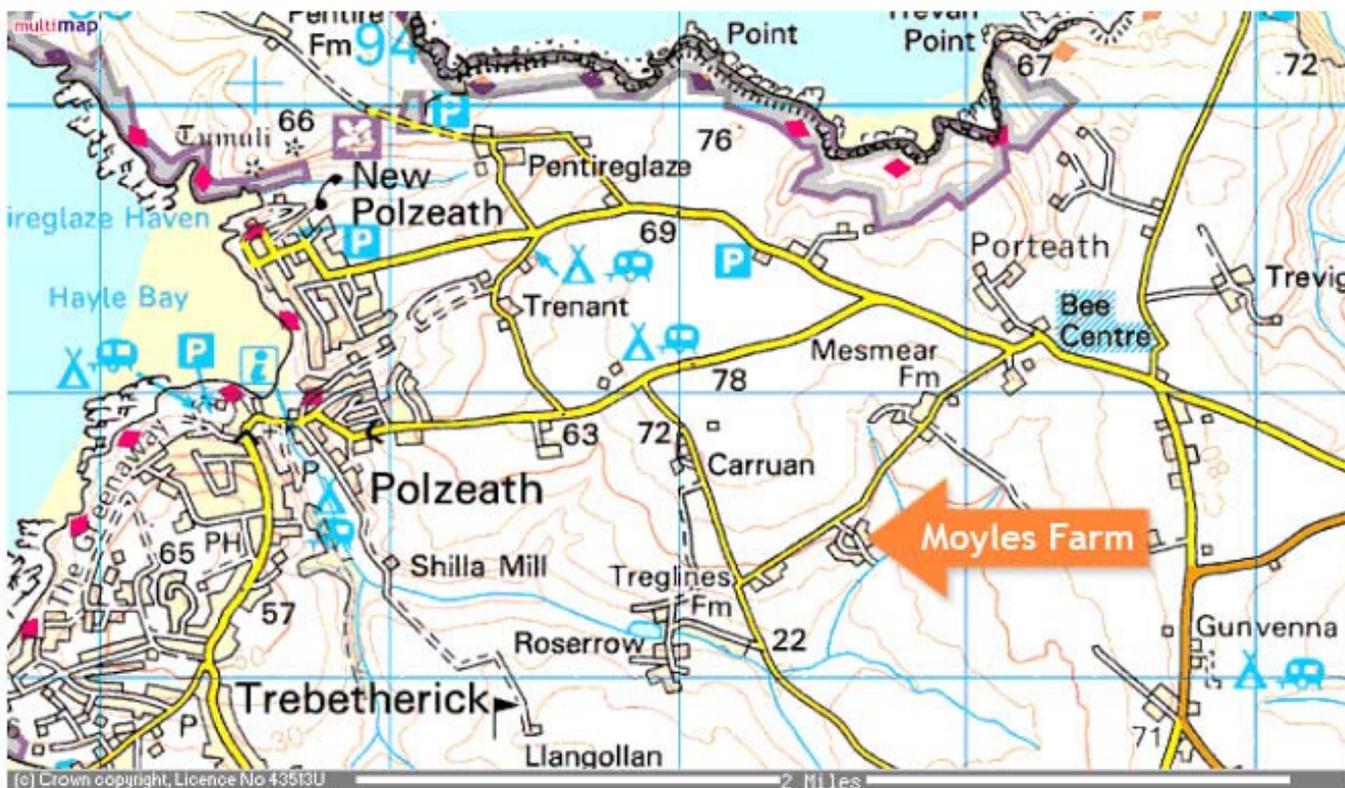

Take the right hand turn towards Port Quinn and Polzeath, follow the tourist sign to the Bee Centre. After half a mile there is a further junction take the right hand turn towards the Bee Centre. Do not take the very sharp hand turn here to Port Quinn as it is a minor lane only.

Passing the Bee centre on your right, the road then bends to the right, on the bend go left down a small road that is signed at the end "Mesmeat Farm".

Drive past Mesmeat and Moyles is the next farm on the left after about half a mile.

The "Moyles" slate sign is in the wall. Go down the drive, and keep Cornish "Hedge" (wall) on your right.

Moyles Mill is straight ahead continue right to the end of the wall (keeping wall on your right) to Mynford cottage.
